A Message from Board Chairman James Ramos

Words can't describe how saddened and horrified we are about this tragedy. Our hearts go out to the victims. The Board of Supervisors is monitoring the situation and is in communication with law enforcement.

Media should contact the San Bernardino Police Department for more information about the shooting at 909-383-5311.

The County has taken precautions to protect the public and County employees.

County employees who are working within the City of San Bernardino were sent home for the day. Security has been provided at County facilities within the city as a precaution.
